

Verizon FiOS

“Truth” and “horizon” inspired the name of the US’s largest mobile phone provider, Verizon. Founded in 2000 as the result of multiple mergers, Verizon possesses an expanding media horizon. Especially now their FiOS network can bring the world to you, wherever you are, with 46 commercial-free music channels, 535 all-digital channels, 130 HD channels and over 25,000 On Demand movies. All delivered lightening-fast through America’s largest 100% fiber optic network.

The Network

Speed, quality and reliability are the result of Verizon’s massive investment in its network, creating an impressive line-up.

1. FiOS TV
2. FiOS Internet
3. FiOs Digital Voice

FiOS TV

Verizon has formulated an advanced package in its FiOS TV. FiOS TV offers features you have to see to believe.

1. HDTV you can rely on, delivered to your TV, computer and compatible smartphone.
2. The new Flex View feature allows you to take your downloaded or purchased movies on your laptop, desktop and mobile devices.
3. Remote DVR programming ensures you never miss another show.
4. Multi-Room DVR means you can start a movie in one room and finish it in another.
5. TV widgets let you customize your experience and add features that keep you updated with your interests, including Facebook and Twitter.

FiOS Internet

FiOS’s fiber optics beats cable internet by a long shot, allowing you to upload a 50 MB photo album in 20 seconds. And you won’t be sweating it when you’re gaming online since there’s only a .03 - second lag compared to cable’s .6-second lag. While you’re gaming away, you can listen to the 10 songs you downloaded in 8 seconds. Cable can only do 3.

1. Rated fastest internet 5 years in a row by Just Internet.
2. No “throttling” means you can download your media at blazing fast speeds. Always.
3. Lots of extras, including Wi-Fi access, Verizon email, 24/7 support, and a personal Web space to create your own blog, website or webpage.

FiOS Digital Voice

Verizon has fully integrated FiOS Digital Voice into its fiber optic network, and offers HD-quality with 20 advanced features, giving you control over how you use your telephone.

Options

Verizon offers plenty of bundling options to fit your needs and lifestyle. FiOS has something for everyone, and with 24/7 support, it’s a perfect choice for bringing the world to you at an affordable price.
